Freedom of Information – Publication of Responses

In line with our policy on openness, it is our intention to make available the responses we receive. We will publish them on our websites – www.dsa.gov.uk and www.dvani.gov.uk - at the end of the consultation period, unless you specifically ask us not to do so. You should also be aware that we might have to disclose your response if asked to do so as part of a request for information made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. You may ask that your response is kept confidential, but we will only be able to do this if withholding the information is consistent with the obligations under that legislation. Please note that a confidentiality disclaimer generated by an IT system in email responses will not be regarded as a confidentiality request. If third parties ask for hard copies of responses, we will make a reasonable charge for processing and copying.

Personal data is not disclosed to, or shared with, any third parties other than in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. For further information, please see our privacy notice on our websites www.dsa.gov.uk and www.dvani.gov.uk. Details of the DfT's / DSA's and DoE's/DVA's registration with the Information Commissioner can be viewed on the Data Protection Public Register on the Commissioner's website – www.ico.gov.uk. DfT's registration number is Z7122992. DoE's registration number is Z582270.

Please Note – We will not revise or edit comments received to remove typographic errors or spelling mistakes before publishing them on the website.
